

Resources for the Electrically Sensitive

The following list is not an endorsement. Some of the vendors do make rather optimistic claims. Be aware that no magic wands have been invented. It is not possible to use any technology to create zero EMF.

Less EMF Inc. 26 Valley View Lane Ghent, NY 12075 USA 1-888-LESS-EMF www.lessemf.com	Offers a wide variety of measuring instruments, shielding materials, books and much more. Comprehensive catalog.
Technology Alternatives Corp. 1950 NE 208 Terrace Miami, FL 33179 USA 1-800-222-3003 www.milligauss.com	Low-EMF computers and screens, instruments, etc.
Alpha Labs, Inc. 1280 South 300 West St. Salt Lake City, UT 84101 USA 1-801-487-9492	Makers of the TriField meter and other instruments. They offer a $60.00 upgrade to their TriField meter that makes it 100 times more sensitive and thus more useful to the highly electrically sensitive. Call for instructions.
TeLoRay Systems Box 290 780 40 Mockfjard Sweden Phone: From Sweden: 0241-216-00 USA: 011-46-241-216-00 www.teloray.se	Low EMF telephones. telephone line filters, shielding, etc.
Lehman's Non-Electric Catalog One Lehman Circle P.O. Box 41 Kidron, OH 44636 USA 1-888-438-5346 www.lehmans.com	A store and catalog for the Amish community, which for religious reasons live without electricity. Very nice catalog with all sorts of non-electric tools, appliances, stoves, etc.
The Vermont Country Store P.O. Box 6999 Rutland, VT 05702 USA 1-802-362-8440 www.vermontcountrystore.com	Old-fashioned country store with various low-chem items and a couple non-electric gems, like wind-up wrist watches.

Electric Supply Online 1-610-449-8702 www.electricsupplyonline.com	Sells the low-EMF, low-smell SoftHeat electric space heaters from Cadet Mfg., and low-EMF GFCI relays from Cooper.
---	---